

Livelihood and IWRM

Regional Water Sector Programme

Poverty reduction through Water

Focusing on actions on the ground

IWRM Demonstration Projects

Applying IWRM principles in practise

Integration is about people

- Direct impact on the ground
- Link IWRM to service delivery
- Water as a catalyst for development

Project Phases

Identification

Detailed design

Implementation

Monitoring

Up Scaling

Project Identification

Identification of project area through National Water Department

Project Framework

Initial consultations with institutional stakeholders

Implementing Agent,
NGO, Para-statal,
Consulting Company

Project Formulation by Communities / Local Government

Communities

- Capacity building for communities
- Continuous consultations
- Workshop on priorities

Implementing Agent

- Understanding the dynamics of communities
- Facilitating process
- Voices of poor and women

Project Implementation

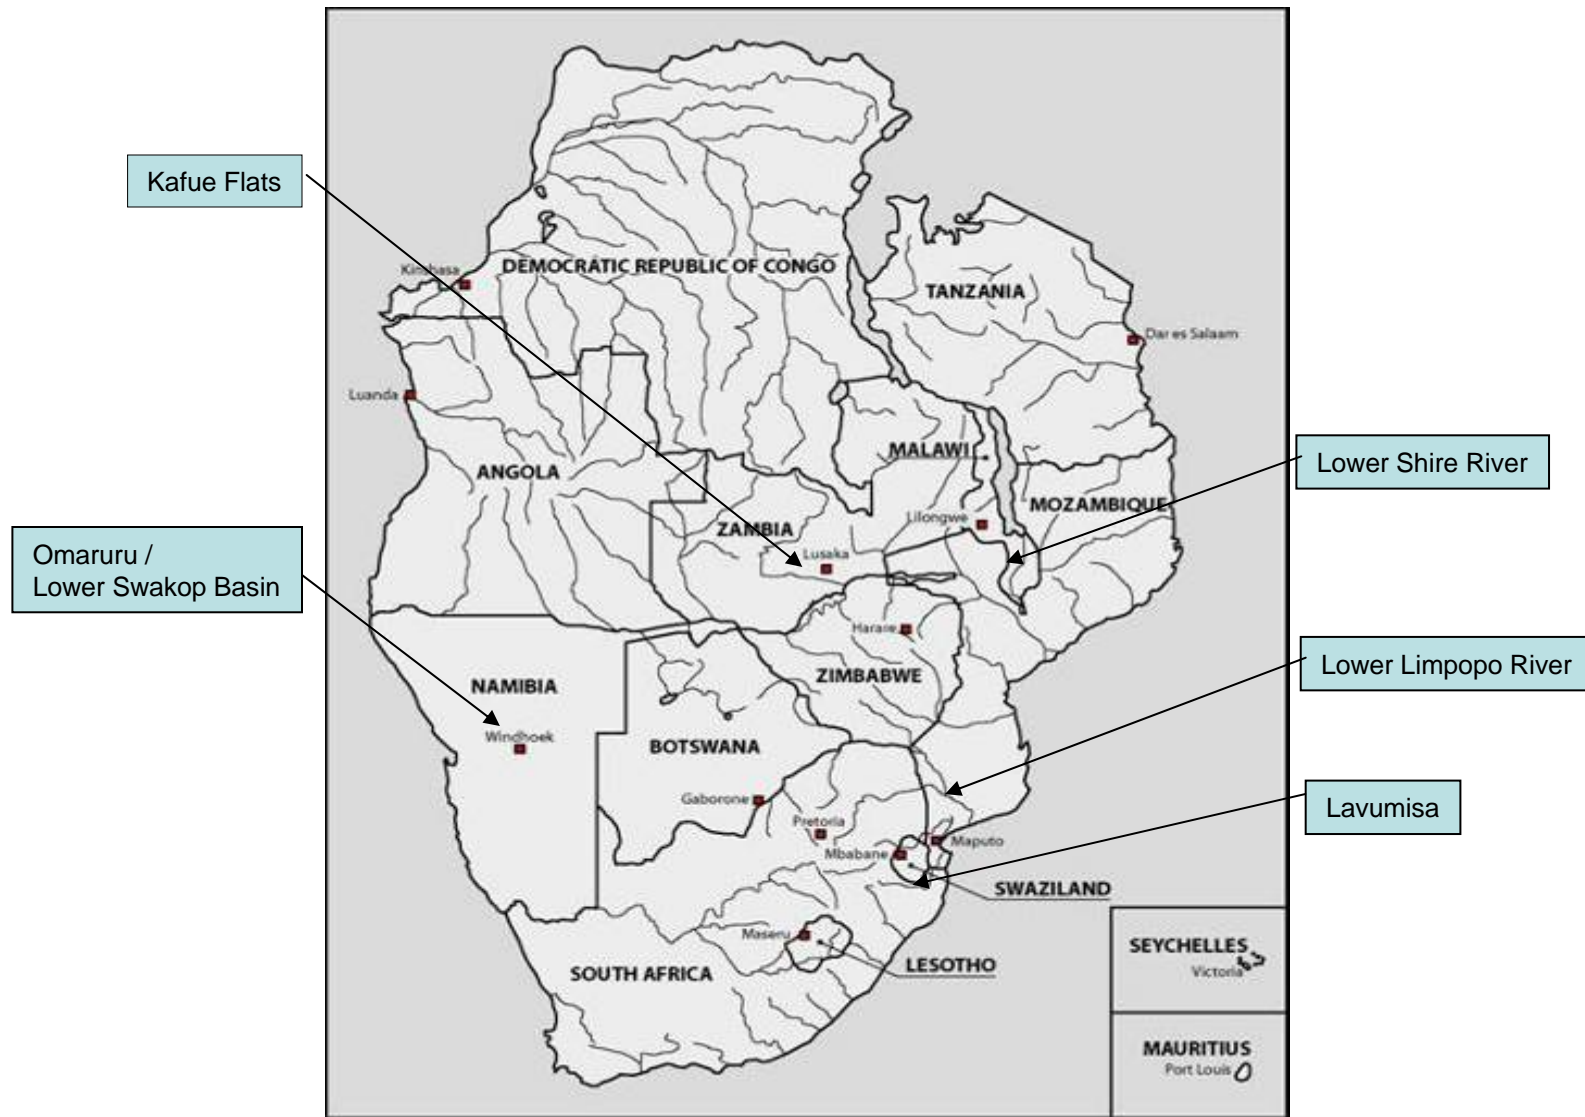

By Implementing Agent

Local and National government

Communities

IWRM Demonstration projects

Project monitoring and support

Supporting, monitoring and experience gathering

Experience Sharing Events

Cooperation with other similar programs

Project Up-Scaling

That processes and methods becomes embedded into Local Government work

Access to funding from other sources

Dzimphutsi IWRM project, lower Shire valley, Malawi

Purpose	To improve the livelihood of the population living in the Dzimphutsi village in Chikwawa District.
What	Irrigation Scheme, - 10 Ha irrigation land Water harvesting, small dams Domestic Water and Sanitation Fish farming
Beneficiaries	Directly 100 Households
Implementation	Budget DKK 2.4 mill Timing April 07 - August 08 Imp. Agent:Coda and Partners

Regional Water Sector Programme
Programme Support Facility

A SADC initiative funded by Danida

WWW.SADCWATER.COM

Partners and agents

Support / monitoring: IWMI
Cooperation projects
South Africa: IWRM II
Zambia: Water Sector Programme

Zambia: WWF / IDE
Malawi: Coda and Partners
Mozambique: IUCN / UDEBA
Swaziland: SWADE
Namibia: NNF

National and local government in all project countries

